

En Sociedad

9 DE AGOSTO DE 2003
REVISTA SEMANAL DE
HOY

MAPET International Donates Hospital Equipment

Various personalities linked to the health sector met to participate in the delivery of hospital equipment and portable x-ray units, donated by MAPET International Foundation to the Dominican Republic, through the Secretary of Agriculture and in collaboration with National Dominican Lottery and its Department of Social Assistance.

This Act, that was celebrated in the activities Banquet Hall of the National Lottery, and was presided by the Director of that Institution, Anibal Amparo; Mario Perez, President of MAPET; Mario Perez, (son), Executive Director and Ramon Tatis, Vice President in the Dominican Republic also Ramon Alfredo Borjas, Consul of Dominican Republic in Miami.

The hospitals "Padre Billini, Cardiology", "Moscoso Puello", "Robert Reid Cabral", "El Mamey, Fundacion del Sur Futuro", "Materidad Nuestra Señora de la Altigracia", "Dario Contreras" and the General Direction of boarder zone were the institutions favored by these donations.

During the brief speech, Doctor Anibal Amparo, Administrator of the National Lottery, spoke to those present, thanked the guests for their presence, and explained that the donation of these equipments will be an improvement for these hospitals, since these institutions are in need of these equipments and come to aid in the improvement of health and specifically of the needy class in the Dominican Republic.

Likewise, Mr. M. Mario Perez, President of MAPET, briefly addressed the meeting.

At the end Act, Doctor Amparo Garcia handed a recognition plaque to the President of MAPET, preceded by a cocktail party for those present and including the benefited institutions and executives from the National Lottery and MAPET International Foundation.

Mario Pérez son, Mario Pérez and Anibal Amparo García.

Ramón Emilio Tatis, Arelis Tatis and Mario Pérez son.

Petra Castillo and Teresita Santos.

Mario Pérez, son, Ramón Alfredo Bordas, Mario Pérez and Ramón Emilio Tatis.